American Guild of Organists | Convention News, Vol. 1

Welcome to the AGO Houston 2016 Convention Newsletter!

We will be sending news and convention updates during the next few months as we get ready for what promises to be an outstanding convention lineup. We hope you have made plans to join us June 19-23. If you haven't done so already, take some time to explore our informative website and discover all the convention has to offer. Start with our Convention Highlights page and a warm welcome from our Convention Coordinator, Rhonda Furr.

If you have already registered, thank you so much! If not, click the link at the bottom of this newsletter to get started. Early registration rates end on March 14.

Do you know a fellow organist or friend that you would like to see at the convention? Please forward this email to that person and encourage them to sign up now.

We are pleased to announce a scholarship opportunity for student organists, age 16-30. Scholarship applicants will submit an application and short essay. The application deadline is March 15, and awards will be announced on April 1.

Click below to learn more.

Innovation to Maximize Your Convention Experience

The committee responsible for producing the Houston convention book has taken a step forward with one foot into the world of technology by adding a mobile application (app) to the convention experience. At the same time, the other foot remains planted to ensure not losing the experience that draws members to these special events. \(Click here to read more.\)

Early registration closes on March 14. Register today to take advantage of the savings!
